thank you

Consistory and the Nominating Committee:

Our heartfelt thanks to Carl Cucchiara and to Karen Babecki as they complete their terms of service on Consistory--double thanks to Karen as she has served for two three-year terms. During a time when the pandemic and transitions in the pulpit presented unique challenges, their leadership and efforts on our behalf have been all the more important and are all the more appreciated.

And while we are expressing our gratitude, our thanks to the members of the nominating committee: Kirsten Posselt, Barbara Sarzillo, Ginny DiMilia and Lori Voorhees and to Pastor Beth for their prayerful and persistent search to fill vacancies on Consistory and thanks to Nancy Lane (Elder), Michelle Clover (Deacon) and Carolyn Keck (Deacon) who have answered this call and offered to contribute their gifts of time and talent to the service of God and our Clover Hill family.

COVID Precautions Update

Seating

Seating on the right side of the sanctuary is unrestricted. Seating on the left side will remain socially distanced as indicated by red and green placards.

Mask Use

Sanctuary: mask use remains optional.

Sunday School: if any attendee is masked, then everyone in the class should be masked.

Ventilation

On cold days, we will conserve heat by leaving windows closed. (This is a change from last winter when we continued to ventilate the sanctuary regardless of the temperature.)

Illness and Exposure

If you are not feeling well (flu, respiratory illness, etc.) or have any reason to believe you are COVID positive, please stay home. If you have had a known COVID exposure, please take appropriate precautions including wearing a high-quality mask when you are around other people. (More information on what to do if you are exposed is available at <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/your-health/if-you-were-exposed.html>)

If we are informed about a person who comes down with COVID within three days of being in church, we will do our best to notify people who were in close contact. We will NOT be sending out mass announcements.

INCLEMENT WEATHER
INFORMATION

Clover Hill Reformed Church Inclement Weather Policy

Should severe weather threaten our area, please check your email for a MailChimp announcement from Clover Hill Reformed Church or contact the coordinator of the meeting/event/activity you were planning to attend.

Sunday Mornings: In the event of inclement weather, the church will remain open for 10:00 am worship services and live stream YouTube - however, the programming may look different.

NOTE: In all cases, please use your personal discretion to determine if it is safe for you to leave your home and travel to church. Do not place yourself or your family in danger by driving outside your comfort zone.

Dear Clover Hill,

We had a busy January together! We held two congregational conversations and a congregational meeting. I'm so grateful for the depth of reflection that occurred at each of these gatherings. If you missed the conversations, go to YouTube.com for the following videos:

- What is happening with the Church these days?
- How will we at CHRC respond?

After the first conversation, a couple of people mentioned to me that when I first arrived, folks thought that me and/or the Classis had an agenda to close our church. This could not be farther from the truth. For the past year, my primary responsibility as your Transitional Pastor has been to facilitate honest reflection so that we as a community can discern where the Holy Spirit is leading us. Some of that reflection has been about the option to close, to sell, and to invest differently. But the vast majority of the reflection has been about who we are as a church, how we got here, and what is growing within us or around us.

So what now?

As I move into my second year with you? In this next year, I see my primary responsibility to be nurturing our interior and exterior lives so that we, individually and collectively, are faithful in following Jesus.

Clover Hill is a vibrant, faithful community of faith. This past month, some have asked me for reading material or online resources to learn and grow their faith. Check out this list of resources for you individually: Devotional Ideas 2023.

For us collectively, the next three weeks, I'm doing a series on "What did Jesus say?", looking at the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew 5-8. And then for Lent, we'll move into a series, "What stories did Jesus tell?", focusing on five parables in Matthew's gospel. Alongside the Lent sermon series, we will gather to study the Spiritual Disciplines that aid our spiritual growth.

I look forward to all of this with you!

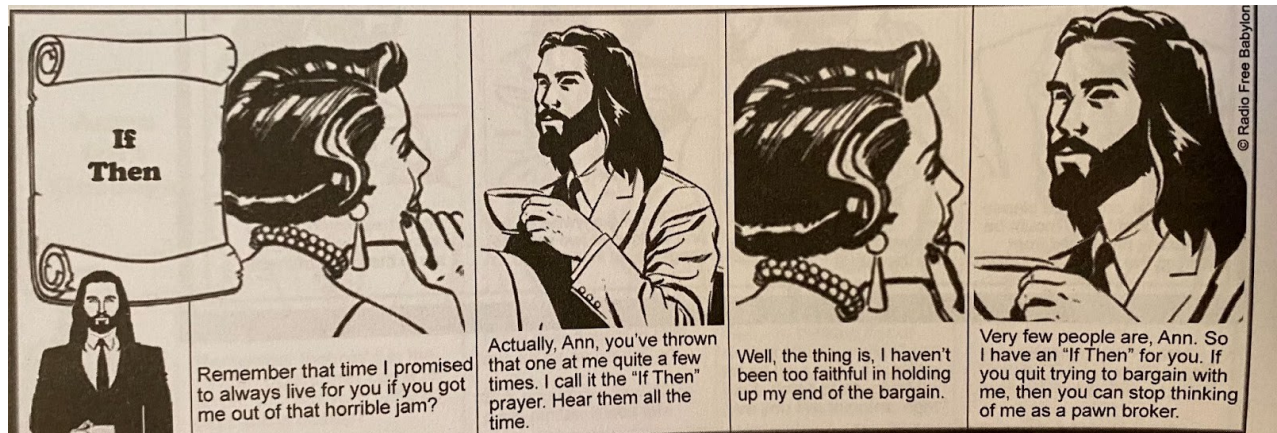

Peace,
Pastor Beth

Coffee with Jesus

Join us after worship for some “Coffee with Jesus” - conversations that emerge from the sermon and/or questions we have regarding our faith and life. We’ll meet February 5 and 12! See you then!

And if you have a question that you’d like for us to discuss, slip it into the “mailbox” in the narthex or email Pastor Beth (pastorbeth.chrc@gmail.com).

Lenten Bible Study

During the weeks of Lent, we are going to learn about the 12 traditional Spiritual Disciplines: :

1. Meditation
2. Prayer
3. Fasting
4. Study
5. Simplicity
6. Solitude
7. Submission
8. Service
9. Confession
10. Worship
11. Guidance
12. Celebration

Are some of the disciplines things you already do and enjoy?
Are there some that you’d like to try?
Maybe there are some you’d like to avoid.

Let’s explore and practice together!

Message from the Pastoral Search Team

Search Team Update:

As the search team continues the process which will lead to bringing a part time pastor to Clover Hill Reformed Church, this is a good time to understand what this will mean for both the congregation and the candidate for pastor.

Chapter 5 in The Calling of a Part Time Pastor discusses mutual expectations of a congregation and a part time pastor. The congregation should expect that the pastor be a person of strong character, sense God's calling to the ministry, will believe and preach the word of God, be a person of prayer, love the people of the church, provide pastoral care, lead, train people for ministry, agree upon duties and expectations of the ministry.

There are also expectations that a part time pastor should have for the congregation. The expectations include praying for the pastor, accept the pastor's leadership, care for the pastor and family, have realistic expectations, serve as ministers alongside the pastor, understand the pastor is part time, support the ministry with attendance and giving, prayerfully consider what is the most that they can pay their pastor. Comes from pages 73-80.

designing a world of hope

EMI was born from a desire to strategically blend design professions and faith in Christ to expand God's kingdom.

In 1981, a structural engineer chaperoned a youth group mission trip to Saipan. A typhoon had recently hit the island and he was able to help the missionaries by designing repairs to their damaged school. On the flight home, God gave a vision for mission that included design professionals and "Engineering Ministries International" was born. Bending the short-term mission model to suit architects and engineers was the seed idea which became EMI's global ministry.

Engineering Ministries International was incorporated in May of 1982 in Colorado, USA. The first design professional joined as full-time staff in 1984. During these formative years, volunteers began to participate in short-term trips that focused on design for ministries in developing countries. Since then, EMI worldwide has completed over 1,500 projects in more than 90 countries around the world.

Beginning in 1998, EMI USA sent its first staff member to live overseas and be a part of a local context. Today, EMI has over 150 staff and interns who serve in ten locations around the world.

Clover Hill Reformed Church is actively supporting the mission of EMI. If you would like to donate to this mission, please contact the church office. More information about ongoing or current projects can be found on the EMI website.

Our deepest gratitude to Steve Lyons who has handled the payroll and associated tax reporting faithfully and well for many (15 plus) years. The "behind-the scenes" service of members like Steve is invaluable. Thank you, thank you. Your integrity in providing this longstanding service to the church family is much appreciated.

2023 Denominational Assessment

Each year we have to pay an assessment to the Reformed Church Classis of Delaware-Raritan. The cost for us in 2023 has been raised over 12% to $100 per church member (that is $7800 for the entire year for all of our members). What is this money used for? It covers the small overhead of the Classis, and helps with things like the seminary, minister support, and some mission work. Some church members choose to make a special offering to cover the cost of their assessment. Over the last three years, Clover Hill has received both pastoral and administrative support from the Classis.

Classis had originally planned to raise the denominational assessment to $125 per member! It seems that they have been subsidizing the cost from member churches for a number of years and they now would like to have churches cover the true cost of their expenses.

Consequently, we can expect that there will be large increases over the next few years as they gradually bring up the amounts paid by the member churches to fully cover their budget.

The cost of the denominational assessment is a large expense for our church - over 5% of our budgeted expenses! Some of you may even remember a time in our history when Clover Hill fell into arrears with Classis because we did not have the funds to pay our full assessment each year. Fortunately, we did catch up and now have a much better handle on keeping our income and expenses in line with each other.

In the past, many church members chose to make an annual gift to cover the cost of their denominational assessment. If you would like to do so, just note "assessment" on the memo line of your check or on the outside of an envelope and Thank You!

Budget Presentation

At the January Consistory meeting, the 2023 budget was approved and we held a congregational budget meeting on January 29th after church. A copy of the simplified budget is on the next page of the Belltower. If you would like to see the longer, more detailed copy of the budget, please contact the church office and we can email that to you.

Sincere thanks to Carol Levitt and to the members of the Stewardship Team for all of the time they've devoted to the preparation of this year's budget. The good work and good judgment that went into this document are evident.

Offering Envelopes for 2023

Offering envelopes are available to those who want them. If you would like to have envelopes, please contact the church office or the financial secretaries, Mark and Carol Levitt, (malevitt@gmail.com) and we will make sure to get a book of envelopes to you.

Budget Summary:

- Overall, 2022 was a very encouraging year given our transitional state and the condition of the economy!
- CHRC finished with a surplus of $968, partly because we did not have the costs associated with a Minister of Music on staff. We had budgeted that into 2022 and likely would have had a deficit if we had hired a new Minister of Music to a staff position. Our attributable gifts were also over $3000 more than forecasted and more than collected for 2021, so that was another a very positive note which helped us finish the year with a surplus.
- For 2023, we have a very small deficit budgeted. We have included a line for the potential cost of a new Minister of Music position. And we are hopeful that gifts will exceed our pledges and our forecast again.
- Almost $39,000 of Special Gift donations were given in memory of loved ones in 2022! These gifts directly increased our savings to over $159,000.
- Beginning in 2023, we are committing to spend 5% of our pledged gifts on Mission Spending. This is a chance to do something positive with the savings that has accumulated over the last few years and to start helping those outside of the CHRC community.

Thank you to the 27 households that made pledges for this year!
Having these pledges is a key component in the budget-building process. Your pledges, and the honoring of your pledges, has made it possible for us to budget more accurately and to prepare for our next minister!

Pledge Summary:

2020 PLEDGE SUMMARY:
# Households Pledged	Total $ Pledged
30	$108,070

2021 PLEDGE SUMMARY:
# Households Pledged	Total $ Pledged
36	$118,560

2022 PLEDGE SUMMARY:
# Households Pledged	Total $ Pledged
27	$105,745

For 2022 we received $108,879 of regular giving from these pledgers. 18 households were within $100 of pledge, 6 households were over their pledge, and 3 households were under their pledge.

2023 PLEDGE SUMMARY:
# Households Pledged	Total $ Pledged
27	$111,972

We have a very nice increase in pledge dollars, and believe most households will fulfill their pledges. But we have again lost a few households outside of those that pledge, so that will also affect our total income.

Devotions and Prayer Time

Come and be in community with others while we seek God's guidance for the new day.

Come join in each Wednesday at 6:30 am on Zoom for a 10-15 minute time of devotion, scripture, sharing of concerns and joys, prayer, and lifting those on the CHRC prayer list to God.

Please use the Zoom information provided on page 2 of this Belltower or in your Friday's "Coming Up" email.

We invite you to take a moment or so, as you can, between the hours of 8 and 11 Wednesday mornings, and pray for all of those who are called by God to be connected to Clover Hill.

He will guide our Church, our country, and our world on a path of faith and benevolence to all.

Our prayers may be awkward.
Our attempts may be feeble.
But since the power of prayer is in the one who hears it and not in the one who says it, our prayers do make a difference.

CHRC Choir Rehearsals Sunday's at 9:00 am.

George Farrell, organist/choir director / (deuscaritasest@aol.com) or cell number (732) 599-4077

It seems like we were just waiting for the ball to drop, in Times Square to bring in the new year, 2023. Here we are beginning the “shortest” month of the year, yet it’s a month full of holidays! On February 2 we’ll celebrate Groundhog Day, February 14: Valentine Day, Feb 20: Presidents’ Day, Feb 22: Ash Wednesday, Feb 27: Orthodox Christian beginning of Lent. February is Black History Month. February also happens to be American heart health month; a time when people can focus on their cardiovascular health. Sounds like a busy month.

Full disclosure: I take medication so that I don’t have high blood pressure. Perhaps you have some heart issues that require medication, exercise, or restraint in your eating habits. However, as I was pondering what to write about this month, I thought about how each of these “holidays” deal with love, which we usually symbolize with the heart. “Love” of good weather, “love” of country, love of the paschal mystery, for which Lent prepares us.

I’ll stick with Valentine Day and Ash Wednesday/Lent.

Valentine’s Day. A celebration of love. Romantic love, yes, but also friendship, family, and community. It’s light hearted. Pink and pretty and sweet. Maybe even a little indulgent.

Lent, by contrast, has more somber connotations. Ashes and dust, a humble reminder of our mortality and sin. Modeled after Jesus’ forty days fasting in the wilderness, it’s a season of preparation meant to cleanse the soul, humble the heart and discipline the body. It’s a time to make less of ourselves.

These two very different holidays might not appear to have much in common and wouldn’t normally be considered together. But at their core, they celebrate the same thing: love. Affectionate, passionate, sacrificial love, personified in the life and death and resurrection of Jesus.

The love of St. Valentine is affectionate, based on feelings and desire. The love of Lent is sacrificial, putting the needs of others above our own. The witness left to us in the Gospels of Mark and John show Jesus living out both of these loves. A person of action, undeterred from His mission to redeem people, moved by compassion.

So, if you’re going to sacrifice something this Lent, may I suggest that you don’t give up but rather give more. Give a little more time for prayer, scripture reading, meditation, etc. Give more time to serve others, especially the poor. If we really take this radical plunge during Lent, we’ll understand better the depth of Jesus’ love.

As the music minister, I’d be remiss if I didn’t suggest that perhaps singing with the choir or playing an instrument for worship would be a great way to give more this Lent!

Sincerely in Christ,
George Farrell

We are also in need of registered nurses to volunteer with Camp Snowball and work with us during summer 2023. We cannot run programming without the assurance that there is someone to care for our campers in the event of an emergency, illness, or injury. For more information, a job description, and compensation details, please email campwarwick1959@gmail.com

Camp Warwick 2023

Summer Registration is now open for 2023!

The registration link can be found on our website.
