COVID Precautions Update

Seating

Seating on the right side of the sanctuary is unrestricted. Seating on the left side will remain socially distanced as indicated by red and green placards.

Mask Use

Sanctuary: mask use remains optional.

Sunday School: if any attendee is masked, then everyone in the class should be masked.

Ventilation

On cold days, we will conserve heat by leaving windows closed. (This is a change from last winter when we continued to ventilate the sanctuary regardless of the temperature.)

Illness and Exposure

If you are not feeling well (flu, respiratory illness, etc.) or have any reason to believe you are COVID positive, please stay home. If you have had a known COVID exposure, please take appropriate precautions including wearing a high-quality mask when you are around other people. (More information on what to do if you are exposed is available at <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/your-health/if-you-were-exposed.html>)

If we are informed about a person who comes down with COVID within three days of being in church, we will do our best to notify people who were in close contact. We will NOT be sending out mass announcements.

Dear Clover Hill,

As we begin Lent, I like to have the “end in mind.” Lent, as you know, culminates with Holy Week and the reminder of Jesus’ suffering, death and resurrection. In the Narrative Lectionary, the Resurrection is the climax of the story. Traditionally, Psalm 118 is read on Easter Sunday. In verse 5, the psalmist writes,

*“From my distress I called upon the LORD;
The LORD answered me and put me in an open space.”*

“My distress” literally means a narrow, tight, confined space. “Open space” is often translated as broad, roomy or even free space.

*“From a tight, confined space, I called to the Lord;
The Lord answered me and put me in an open, broad, roomy space and set me free.”*

As I sat with this verse, I was reminded of walking the “River Hike” at Zion National Park some three decades ago. It is without question, a narrow space. There is no dry land to walk upon. It is rocky and the water is moving, making the hike an exercise in “wobbliness.”

Yet throughout the entire hike, as we slipped from one rock to another, we could not stop looking at the walls, carved from years of erosion. Water had found its way through this confined space.

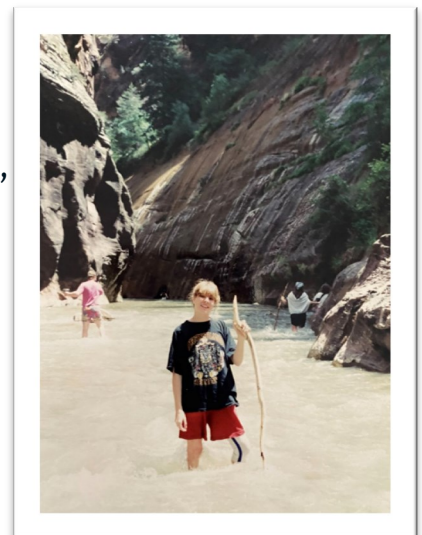

This next picture is of my college bestie, Janean. She had knee surgery just a month before this trip and if I remember correctly, she was calling out to the Lord in her distress with every step.

I wonder as you enter Lent, is there a narrow, tight, confined space in which you find yourself? Can you allow yourself to call out to God? Can you muster the faith and hope to look for a broad, roomy space that will set you free?

I believe that’s the direction we are headed together.

Here we go!

Peace,
Pastor Beth

Message from the Pastoral Search Team

Search Team Update:

Watching the paint dry. Seems like that's where we are in our Pastoral Search now. The prep work is done — the walls washed, the nail-pops repaired, the flaws spackled, the paint applied. What now?

We wait.

The Consistory has approved the Church Profile and passed it along to Classis for acceptance. Next we will post the profile as our “want ad” and - wait.

And while we wait, maybe we pray.

We ask for candidates not looking to serve anywhere else, secure in God's will for them to be at Clover Hill (p.73). We hope that they have found that commitment through the power and presence that comes only through prayer (p.74). We pray that the applicants display quality of character, personal integrity, that reflects their authentic and actionable spiritual gifts for leadership (p.73).

“The church is only as useful to God as we are willing to give our time, talents, and treasure to [God's] service” (p.79). And so, we pray for ourselves- that we are able to continue to serve as “ministers” with our Consistory, using our gifts for the benefit of others (p.78). We pray for the grace and flexibility that will be required of us and our new part-time pastor at times when they will not be immediately available to us (p.79). We ask for the openness and vision to remain a vital congregation.

As the poet, John Milton intoned: They also serve who only stand and wait.

“Some small churches are reluctant to share leadership with their pastor. They may have had a steady stream of short-term ministers in the past; they may have experienced such a long time between pastors that other leadership has emerged . . . or they may resist the leadership of their new pastor until sometime in the far-distant future, their pastor somehow proves worthy of their trust” (p. 77).

The Calling of a Part-Time Pastor by Warren Seibert

The Search Committee welcomes Janet Durborow and Laurel Suk, who have joined us and will bring their individual gifts to complement the group's tasks. Please add them to your support prayers. When you see them next, thank them for volunteering.

11am in the Nevius Fellowship Hall

Join us during the five weeks of Lent to learn, discuss and practice prayer together.

February 26 - Lectio Divina - a prayerful way of reading the Bible

March 5 - Centering Prayer - a type of Christian meditation

March 12 - Walking Prayer - you get the idea

(March 19) - Grace -
Join us for a potluck after worship.
We'll say grace.

March 26 - Praying in Color -
No experience necessary!
Let's allow for a creative prayer process.

From Rob Bell's book, "What We Talk About When We Talk About God."
(pp 122-123)

"I believe that you are already experiencing the presence of God with you in countless ways every single day." However, we don't always have the eyes to see what's going on right in front of us. "It's one thing to sing about God and recite quotes about God and invoke God's name; it's another to be aware of the presence (of God) in every taste, touch, sound, and embrace."

We invite you to take a moment or so, as you can, between the hours of 8 and 11 Wednesday mornings, and pray for all of those who are called by God to be connected to Clover Hill. He will guide our Church, our country, and our world on a path of faith and benevolence to all.

Devotions and Prayer Time

Come and be in community with others while we seek God's guidance for the new day.

Come join in each Wednesday at 6:30 am on Zoom for a 10-15 minute time of devotion, scripture, sharing of concerns and joys, prayer, and lifting those on the CHRC prayer list to God.

Please use the Zoom information provided on page 2 of this Belltower or in your Friday's "Coming Up" email.

Come - Be - Reflect -

Share an hour of enjoying a meal, touching base with God and each other.

"And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers."
Acts 2:42

Date: Tuesday, March 21, 2023

Time: noon- about 1:00 pm

Location: Nevius Fellowship Hall

Bring: something to drink, your lunch, and yourself

An opening prayer, 15 minute discussion on Bible/religious topic, fellowship, closing prayer will be provided to deepen our experience together. Hosted by Marilyn Fineman.

No need to RSVP, you do not need to attend each one, just show up!

If you need further information please contact the church office (908-369-8451 or CHRC1834@gmail.com)

Confirmation Classes will be held at Three Bridges Reformed Church at 11:30am on Sunday's March 5, 12, & 26. If you have any questions, please ask Pastor Beth (732-735-2112 / pastorbeth.chrc@gmail.com) or Amy Frank (908-963-8810 / frankfmly@yahoo.com).

CHRC Choir Rehearsals Sunday's at 9:00 am.

George Farrell, organist/choir director / (deuscaritasest@aol.com) or cell number (732) 599-4077

I like the month of March because weather begins to get nicer, daylight continues to get longer, and there are a few fun celebrations. For example: March 12, Daylight Saving Time (I suppose some people enjoy an hour less sleep!); March 15, the Ides of March; March 17, St. Patrick Day; March 30, George Farrell's birthday, to name a few.

I know that the Reformed Church doesn't celebrate saint days, but I also know that lots of Americans, no matter what religion or lack thereof, celebrate St. Patrick Day.

What do we know about St. Patrick? Well, the obvious is that we celebrate his feast on March 17! We probably all know he's considered the patron saint of Ireland. I think for most people that's all we know. Let me fill you in a bit.

Patrick was born in Roman Britain in the late 4th century, he was kidnapped at the age of 16 and taken to Ireland as a slave. He escaped but returned about 432 BC to convert the Irish to Christianity. By the time of his death on March 17, 461, he had established monasteries, churches, and schools. Many legends grew up around him—for example, that he drove the snakes out of Ireland (false) and used the shamrock (doubtful) to explain the Trinity. (But you know the expression I like: If it's not true it ought to be!) Ireland came to celebrate his day with religious services and feasts. But we don't tend to do that when we celebrate St. Patrick's Day.

Some of the ways we celebrate it are owed to emigrants of Ireland, particularly to the USA, who transformed St. Patrick's Day into a largely secular holiday of partying and celebration of all things Irish. For example, Boston and New York held parades since the 1700's and in 1962 Chicago started dyeing its river green to mark the day. Irish and non-Irish alike commonly participate wearing an item of green clothing or a shamrock. (They told us in school that everyone was Irish on St. Patrick's Day.) Corned beef and cabbage are associated with the holiday, and even beer is sometimes dyed green to celebrate the day. I live with a priest originally from Northern Ireland who told me that the Irish did not eat Corned beef and cabbage!

A tidbit you may not know: He may be known as the patron saint of Ireland, but Patrick was never actually canonized. He was proclaimed a saint by popular acclamation. One more interesting bit of info, he's buried on the grounds of Holy Trinity Cathedral known as Down Cathedral, of the Church of Ireland.

What can we learn from St. Patrick Day? That our religious beliefs and celebrations may end up affecting culture, though not always in the way we hope, but nonetheless they make an impression. Yes, many will celebrate with green beer and corned beef and cabbage, but maybe a few will check out Wikipedia or some other source and learn about the real people and beliefs celebrated that they may never have thought about if it didn't enter into the culture.

So, if you celebrate St. Patrick's Day this year, remember a real person was doing what we as faithful followers are called to do, point others toward Jesus.

In Christ,
George Farrell

Three Bridges Reformed Church hosted their annual Pancake Dinner and Ash Wednesday Worship 2/22/23 in collaboration with Clover Hill and Neshanic Reformed Churches and our community families as well!

Passing the peace—
greeting those we knew and acquainting with new.

Combined choir voices from the three churches. Singing “Jesus Calls Us” together and with the congregation.

Pastor Chris gave a wonderful sermon based upon Joel 2:1-2, 12-17, and spoke on not overlooking ‘small doors’—seeing God/Christ in the small moments of our lives, not just the big splashy ones. And, asked the question if we are sharing who Jesus is with others?

Top—Pastor Beth explaining the “spy paper,” to write what we want to let go of that comes between us and God.
Middle & left—receiving our ashes and leaving our message to God on the “spy paper” that dissolves in the font water.

In the Spotlight

This information will be based on the organization's activities and is intended to create awareness in our communities. If you have an interest in donating or volunteering, please follow the link supplied for more information.

Providing hope and opportunities – one person at a time.

We start by providing a meal to anyone who comes to The Mission and has nowhere else to turn.

From there, we provide hope and opportunities.

We talk with each individual experiencing homelessness about how we can help them obtain permanent supportive housing, while receiving health care, behavioral health counseling and seeing new possibilities in themselves.

And we help those seeking recovery with licensed and credentialed clinical staff who provide a comprehensive therapeutic approach, including individual and group counseling, medical evaluations and referrals, as well as educational and vocational opportunities.

We help those we serve by connecting. Connecting compassionately with those who knock on our door. And connecting deeply with our community in seven distinct, yet unified, and vital ways:

- The Shelter
- Behavioral Health Center
- Vocational Development
- The New Direction Program
- Supportive Housing
- Thrift Store
- Food Pantry

eMi update—Traveling to South Africa—Jason Reinhardt

Hi Friends and Supporters,

I'm heading to South Africa this weekend (February 25), which is where my journey with EMI all started. Please pray for me and also for Jalina while she stays back with the boys.

Additionally, you can read more about the Tree of Life Ministry in Costa Rica where they work to create unity to disciple the next generational of leaders.

Hear the stories and watch a great video about the Fellowship Program in South Africa in our blog update at: the-reinhardt's update \(wordpress.com\) .

If you take pictures at any church event please share with the church office admin (chrc1834@gmail.com) so we may include in our social media and Belltower. Not all pictures will be used but it is good to have them on file.

Please be aware we have a Family Photo Release form on file in the church office that limits the publication of the minors in our church family. Please check with the office admin before posting any photos on social media platforms.

Belltower Deadline

Please submit all write ups to be included in the April issue, to the church office (chrc1834@gmail.com), by Thursday, March 16, 2023.

Office Hours Information

Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 9:00 am to 2:30 pm.

The office administrator will be working remotely each Wednesday and available by phone (908-369-8451 by leaving a message) and email (CHRC1834@gmail.com).

Streaming Worship Services

We have 2 trained volunteers (Amy Frank and Gary Tully) who are qualified to operate our newly revised and very simple streaming system. We are seeking new volunteers to step in and help. Training takes about one hour (depending on how comfortable you are with operating a computer) and would be an ideal situation for high school aged teens to earn service credits. Currently our YouTube broadcast services some 30-35 families and individuals per week and we would hate to have this service curtailed. Anyone interested please contact the church office at CHRC1834@gmail.com or 908-369-8451 or Bob DiMilia at redimilia@gmail.com or 917-855-5335.

Whether we are social distancing or gathering at church, you can always stay on top of what is going on through:

- Belltower and bulletin announcements/inserts
- Facebook
- Instagram
- church website: www.cloverhillchurch.org
- emails from MailChimp
- Zoom worship/meetings/activities

News from the Stewardship Team

Consistory Facilitator: David Gwin (CDavidGwin@gmail.com)

A few times each year, we like to remind everyone about some of the non-traditional ways to make gifts to the church. While Amazon Smile is no longer an option, here are a few other things to consider:

CHECK WITH YOUR EMPLOYER TO SEE IF THEY HAVE A MATCHING GIFT PROGRAM:

Over 26 million individuals work for a company that offers a matching gift program, but many are not aware of it. There are numerous companies that will match an employee's donation to a charity (usually up to a certain limit). This could DOUBLE what you donate to the church without costing you anything! Ask your HR department if such a program is available. If the church needs to register, let us know. We are already registered with a few matching setups such as Benevity and Blackboard Giving.

Set Up an IRA Qualified Charitable Distribution:

This is an IRA withdrawal that is paid directly from your IRA to a qualifying charity (such as the church). You must be aged at least 70 1/2 and the IRS has other qualifications to be met, but you may be able to eliminate the need to pay income tax on this donation. But remember, if you don't pay income tax on this donation, you will not be able to count it towards your charitable donation deduction on your taxes. Check with your tax advisor for guidance.

Donate Stocks or Other Securities:

You can donate stocks and other securities directly to the church through our brokerage account. Consult with your tax advisor, as you may be able to benefit from a tax savings by donating highly appreciated stocks or bonds. Contact the church office for brokerage account information: 908-369-8451 or CHRC1834@gmail.com.

Automatic Bill Pay:

This has become a very popular option! It is easy, just contact your bank to set up an online bill pay option. Set it up once and the bank will automatically withdraw the chosen amount from your account and mail a check to the church at whatever interval you want—monthly, weekly, etc.

PayPal Giving Fund:

This is a great option for someone who wants to use their credit card to make a donation. Just search online for "PayPal Giving Fund" and select Clover Hill Reformed Church or The Reformed Dutch Church of Clover Hill as the charity you want to support. Choose the amount you want to donate through your PayPal account. Please be aware that your donation will be anonymous to the church from PayPal and so you will NOT get a receipt from the church, but you will get one from PayPal.

Don't Forget About ShopRite Gift Cards!:

If you buy ShopRite gift cards through the church, you get the full value of the gift card and the church gets 5% of the value on the gift card. That's a great return on your investment! Contact Karen Babecki to purchase cards (kbabecki@comcast.net). This has been a great fundraiser over the years.
