COVID Precautions Update

Seating

Seating on the right side of the sanctuary is unrestricted. Seating on the left side will remain socially distanced as indicated by red and green placards.

Mask Use

Sanctuary: mask use remains optional.

Sunday School: if any attendee is masked, then everyone in the class should be masked.

Ventilation

On cold days, we will conserve heat by leaving windows closed. (This is a change from last winter when we continued to ventilate the sanctuary regardless of the temperature.)

Illness and Exposure

If you are not feeling well (flu, respiratory illness, etc.) or have any reason to believe you are COVID positive, please stay home. If you have had a known COVID exposure, please take appropriate precautions including wearing a high-quality mask when you are around other people. (More information on what to do if you are exposed is available at <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/your-health/if-you-were-exposed.html>)

Dear Clover Hill,

We are approaching my one year anniversary of being with you in this transition period. I continue to feel so grateful for this opportunity to walk beside you as you look forward to your future worship and work together.

This is the first time Clover Hill has engaged in an intentional “Interim” period. There are five traditional tasks of an Interim or Transition Period. They are:

1. Come to grips with history
2. Examine organizational needs
3. Strengthen denominational relationships
4. Discover who we are as a church
5. Look for and commit to a new future

I believe you did a lot of work with #1, Come to Grips with history, before I got here. #3, Strengthen denominational relationships, is and has always been strong. #4, Discover who we are as a church, has been the focus of this last year through the faithful work of the Search Team. And #5, Look for and commit to a new future is where we are about to go as the Search Team circulates the Pastor’s position and they conduct interviews.

I left out #2, Examine organizational needs. The Consistory has begun this task and will continue to do so into this new year.

But there is one “task” that isn’t laid out in the traditional tasks. An Interim pastor serves as a bridge from one season to another. I see my role as finding a way to move our congregation from who and what we were in our last season over a bridge to who and what God is calling us to be. To that end, it is important to tell you that it is my intention to be here until you have found your next pastor. Although I am on a “two year contract,” my calling to you is to journey with you from past to future.

Here’s to 2023! To growing together! To learning together! To loving together!

Peace,
Pastor Beth

A special celebration of Epiphany on January 8, 2023!

This year, we are going to celebrate Epiphany with a unique gift for each of us. During worship on January 8, we will each receive a “Star Word.” What’s a star word?

We have prepared a paper star with a word stuck on it. The words cover a range of meanings and are meant to help “guide” us in this next year.

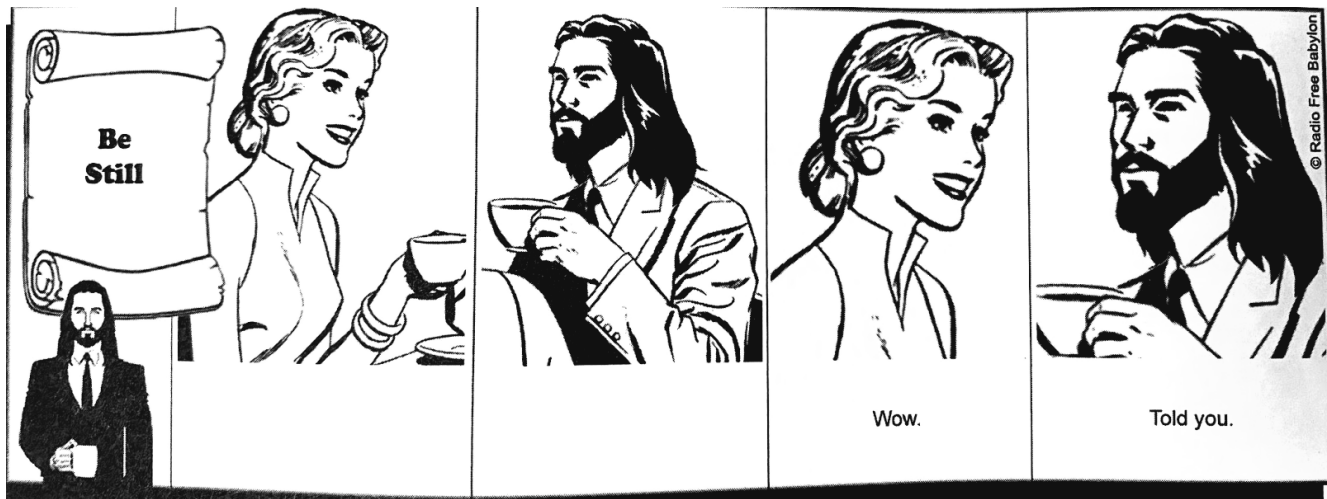

Once you receive your star word, use these questions as prompts to reflect. Just as the Christmas star once shined for all people to see, the light of Christ still shines for all people. May we use these star words as reminders of the Christmas star we invite into our lives so that we might be led toward Jesus Christ.

Star Word Reflections

Your word:

- What are your initial thoughts about the word?
- What is the definition of your word?
- What are the different forms your word can take? How do the different forms change its meaning?
Ex: If your word is imagine, it could be imagination, imagining, imagined, etc.
- What synonyms of your word come to mind? How do they help to shape your understanding of your word?
- What scripture passage(s) or stories does your word bring to mind? If you need some help, try going to biblegateway.com or use a Bible concordance to look up passages.
- Write any final thoughts or reflections.

Coffee with Jesus

We continue to have rich conversation after worship, discussing the sermon that morning and/or asking our questions in a safe, open environment. We’ll gather January 8. Hope you’ll join us!

We will start directly following the sanctuary decorations taken down.

And if you have a question that you’d like for us to discuss, slip it into the “mailbox” in the narthex or email Pastor Beth (pastorbeth.chrc@gmail.com).

January 15 and 22

What is happening in and with the church today?
What can we do at CHRC about it?

After our November potluck, the Consistory and Search Team collected several of your questions and would like to have an open conversation about what “church” means in our world today.

Please join us for a conversation in the sanctuary after worship. The conversations will be livestreamed just like the worship service. At the beginning of the meeting, we will offer a cell phone number for you to text or call with your questions so that remote participation is possible.

January 15 - What is happening in the church (and with religion at large) today?

January 22 - How can we, at Clover Hill, respond?

Ready to SERVE

Nominating Season Is Here!

In addition to an already busy season of holiday cheer, our nominating committee has been faithfully praying and asking people in the congregational to serve on Consistory. So many of you have served on Consistory at one time in the past. But what does serving on Consistory mean now?

There are three main responsibilities for Consistory members, both Elders and Deacons:

1. Attend Consistory meetings, on the 2nd Tuesday of the month from 7pm-8:30pm. At these meetings, we spend time praying for one another and our church. We discuss larger vision ideas. We try very hard not to do committee or team work at this meeting.
2. Serve as a Liaison or Leader of a Team. Our teams are Communication, Fellowship/Service, Spiritual Growth, Stewardship, Health and Safety, and possibly a new team called Pastoral Care.
3. Support the worship service by opening and closing. This is also done by the greater Consistory so that those serving on Consistory can focus on the first two responsibilities.

Do you think God is asking you to serve Consistory at this time? If you'd like to talk about it, call Pastor Beth (732-735-2112), Barbara Sarzillo (908-581-8189) or Kirsten Posselt (908-285-0548).

Message from the Pastoral Search Team

Search Team Update:

The year 2022 brought us a new search team, an transitional pastor, and expectations for the coming year.

The congregation took part in surveys and congregational meetings, and questionnaires. We had discussions, meetings, and even lunch, bringing us to a new year.

This year we have more expectations, the groundwork is done, the congregation has been heard, and we must address the mutual expectations of what will come next. During our research, the team was made aware that expectations are not one-sided. A pastor has expectations too. In our surveys, questions were asked and answered on what our expectations will be. What is the most important job of the Pastor? We had more than one answer. But the pastor candidate will have important questions, too, such as what we as a church can do for them. So, we all have expectations at this point in our New Year. We will pray for guidance on this journey just as a Pastor candidate will pray for theirs.

From: The Calling of a Part-time Pastor, By Warren Seibert CH 5 Pg 80

“That church which demonstrates its desire to give their very best to their new Pastor will most likely receive the very best from their new Pastor in return. It is an honorable way to begin in ministry together.”

Wishing you all a blessed New Year,

Stewardship Pledge Drive

Once again, the Stewardship Team is truly grateful for the dedication of our Clover Hill family in fulfilling their pledges. As we come to the end of 2022, we have had many followers send in gifts from both near and far. We wish everyone a New Year filled with good health and happiness! As of mid December, we have received 27 pledges for 2023, that is the same number as the previous year.

Come and Follow Me!

Budget Presentation

At the January 11th Stewardship Team meeting, we will be building the budget for 2023 using the pledges as a guideline for income. We will have a presentation of the budget to the congregation on January 29, 2023 (details to follow).

2023 Denominational Assessment

Each year we have to pay an assessment to the Reformed Church Classis of Delaware-Raritan. What is this money used for? It covers the small overhead of the Classis, and helps with things like the seminary, minister support, and some mission work. Some church members choose to make an extra offering to cover the cost of their assessment. If you would like to do this, just mark your check “assessment” and it will help pay what we owe to Classis.

The cost for us in 2023 is $100 per church member (that is $11 more per member than the previous year). Classis actually proposed raising the assessment by $36 per member! It seems that Classis has been subsidizing the assessments from churches and what has been paid has not actually covered the Classis budget. Consequently, we can expect that there will be larger increases over the next few years as they gradually bring up the amounts paid by the member churches to fully cover their budget. Clover Hill’s total obligation to Classis will be $7800 for 2023, a pretty large chunk of our own budget.

Final Deposit for 2022

The final deposit for 2022 giving was on December 28th. Any gift received after that date will be credited toward your 2023 gifts.

Offering Envelopes for 2023

2023 offering envelopes are available for those who would like them. If you would like to have envelopes, please contact the church office or the financial secretaries, Mark & Carol Levitt, (malevitt@gmail.com) and we will make sure to get a book of envelopes to you.

Devotions and Prayer Time

Come and be in community with others while we seek God's guidance for the new day.

Come join in each Wednesday at 6:30 am on Zoom for a 10-15 minute time of devotion, scripture, sharing of concerns and joys, prayer, and lifting those on the CHRC prayer list to God.

Please use the Zoom information provided on page 2 of this Belltower or in your Friday's "Coming Up" email.

We invite you to take a moment or so, as you can, between the hours of 8 and 11 Wednesday mornings, and pray for all of those who are called by God to be connected to Clover Hill.

He will guide our Church, our country, and our world on a path of faith and benevolence to all.

We are once again combining our confirmation class, this time with two of our sister churches (Three Bridges and Neshanic Reformed Church). Classes will be held at Three Bridges Reformed Church at 11:30am on Sunday's January 8, 22, and 29. If you have any questions, please ask Pastor Beth (732-735-2112 / pastorbeth.chrc@gmail.com) or Amy Frank (908-963-8810 / frankfmly@yahoo.com).

"And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers." Acts 2:42

Lunch Bunch

Come - Be - Reflect -

Share an hour of enjoying a meal, touching base with God and each other.

An opening prayer, 15 minute discussion on Bible/religious topic, fellowship, closing prayer will be provided to deepen our experience together. Hosted by Ginny DiMilia.

No need to RSVP, you do not need to attend each one, just show up!

If you need further information please contact the church office (908-369-8451 or chrc@1834@gmail.com)

Date: Tuesday, January 10, 2023

"Sometimes called 'missional rhythms' or 'missional practices', missional habits are those habits we foster in our lives that, in turn, shape our missional outlook. By missional, I mean all that we do and say that alerts others to the reign of God. ... Mission is both the announcement and the demonstration of the reign of God through Christ. (pp20-21)

CHRC Choir Rehearsals Sunday's at 9:00 am.

No rehearsal on 1/1/2023

George Farrell, organist/choir director / (deuscaritases@aol.com) or cell number (732) 599-4077

In 1877, Gerard Manley Hopkins, S.J. wrote a poem that begins: "The world is charged with the grandeur of God."

It's a wonderful declaration of the phenomenal and it's more astonishing because Hopkins suffered from depression. His life was a toil, full of disappointments. It wasn't always easy for him to see God's goodness in the world around him.

It can be that way, at times, for all of us.

I can think of no better time to look for God's grandeur, and to find it, than now; the start of a new year. You see that in all the news stories on January 1 that mention the first baby born in the new year.

But you could also see it New Year's Eve in the hundreds of thousands of people who huddled together in Times Square, shivering in the cold, waiting for that ball to drop, and waiting for history to be made, and waiting for a new number to be added to the calendar.

It's there in every horn that was blown, every explosion of confetti. It's loud and crazy, but it's our way of saying "We are alive. Despite all that's happened to us, and all that we've done wrong, and all that's gone right; we're starting a new year. We're beginning something new."

And I would add: we're able to do that because "the world is charged with the grandeur of God."

We need to be reminded of that. It's easy to miss, especially given the times in which we live. Foreclosures, recession, Covid, growing debt, the bloody battles underway in the world. It seems hopeless.

But then we look at the church season we're in, and we find hope.

Think about it: Mary was a woman who herself understood what it was like to live in an uncertain and frightening time. The Mother of God was forced, days after giving birth, to become a refugee, to save the life of her child. Yet she never abandoned hope. She never lost trust in God. As we begin this new year may we continue to trust in God.

The future is a clean page, an empty calendar, waiting to be written on. Everything is pure. Everything is possible.

New Year's Day is traditionally a day of beginnings, when resolutions are made. That treadmill you got for Christmas will get a work out – for a week or two. So will the diet... and the promise to stop smoking... and the vow you made to finally clean out the garage.

It all sounds good for a few days. But it's soon forgotten, or neglected.

But don't forget or neglect this beautiful reality: God's grandeur is with us, and among us. "The world IS charged with the grandeur of God." It's there in the bright light of every winter morning and the bright hope that's promised to us with the birth of the savior.

If you're going to make resolutions, resolve to live this year in that hope.

The choir will be back in action on January 8, 2023. Consider joining us in making it known that God's grandeur is with us, and among us!

My prayer for you is from Numbers 6: 24-26

The LORD bless you and keep you!

The LORD let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you!

The LORD look upon you kindly and give you peace!

Happy New Year.
George Farrell

Streaming Worship Services

We have 2 trained volunteers (Amy Frank and Gary Tully) who are qualified to operate our newly revised and very simple streaming system. We are seeking new volunteers to step in and help. Training takes about one hour (depending on how comfortable you are with operating a computer) and would be an ideal situation for high school aged teens to earn service credits. Currently our YouTube broadcast services some 30-35 families and individuals per week and we would hate to have this service curtailed. Anyone interested please contact the church office at chrc1834@gmail.com or 908-369-8451 or Bob DiMilia at redimilia@gmail.com or 917-855-5335.

Whether we are social distancing or gathering at church, you can always stay on top of what is going on through:

- Belltower and bulletin announcements/inserts
- Facebook
- Instagram
- church website: www.cloverhillchurch.org
- emails from MailChimp
- Zoom worship/meetings/activities

Sunday, December 18 we had our annual fellowship where everyone brought their favorite homemade cookies to share.

Fellowship and cookies were enjoyed by all.

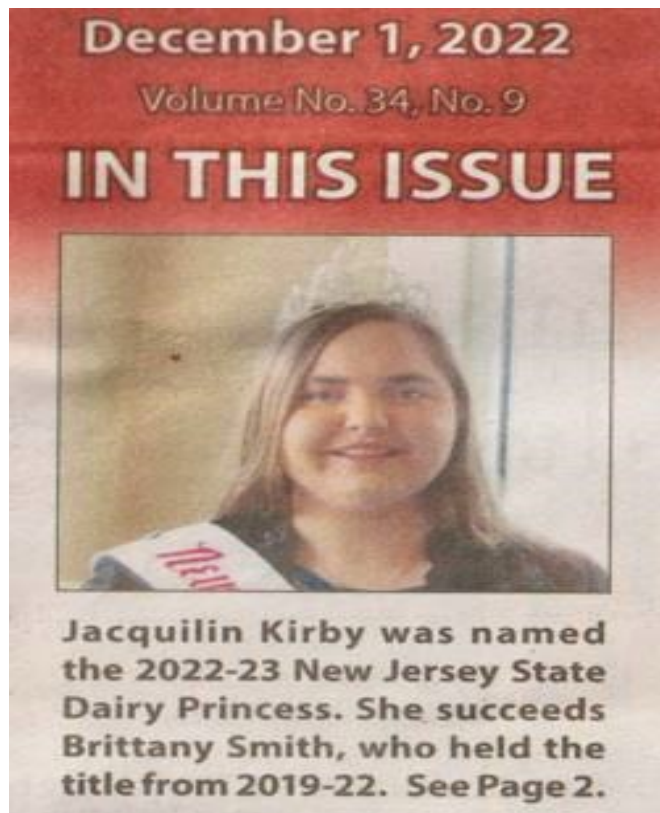

Blessings and Peace to all as we prepare for the celebration of the arrival of the Christ child.

On Friday evening almost a dozen carolers, bedecked in twinkle lights, jingle bells, and Santa hats sang some old familiar Christmas Carols and favorite joyful holiday tunes at several homes of the homebound. Homemade baked treats and a Christmas card made by our Sunday School children were presented at each home. This musical celebration of Christ's birth was a joy for carolers and car-olers alike.

Congratulations to our own
Jacquilin Kirby on this well-deserved honor.

2 December 1, 2022, The New Jersey Farmer

Kirby announced as New Jersey State Dairy Princess

BRIDGEWATER— Jacquilin Kirby of Hillsborough, Somerset County, was named the 2022-2023 New Jersey State Dairy Princess, in a ceremony held on Saturday, Nov. 19.

She succeeds Brittany Smith of Oxford, New Jersey, who held the title from 2019-22.

In 2022, Kirby was named Outstanding Somerset County 4-H member. She is active in several 4-H clubs: New Centre Dairy, Branchburg Beef, Dairy & Livestock and S.A.V.E (Scientific Adventures in Veterinary Experiences).

She recently attended the 2022 National 4-H Dairy Conference in Wisconsin and has competed in the New Jersey State 4-H and Holstein Dairy Quiz Bowl for the past nine years.

In her free time, she works at a horse farm and participates in track and field at school.

"I'm excited about my upcoming year as New Jersey State Dairy Princess and look forward to expanding my knowledge of the dairy industry and sharing that information with consumers," Kirby said.

The 18-year-old granddaughter of Mark and Nancy Kirby has been active in dairy promotion for nine years.

The New Jersey Dairy Princess program is managed by ADA North East, who also manages the New York Dairy Ambassador program, and supports the programs in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Virginia by providing funding, training and promotional resources.
